I actually like this game. Your a tower trying to kill enemies that wont stop! Though its totally designed for a cell phone.
A+

https:\/\/www.youtube.com\/watch?v=QKM-u2BTKig. When you have a couple of minutes to spare (obviously I haven't got too far yet!) this is a pleasant diversion.

Well worth the dollar I paid, as I keep coming back to beat that high score.

P.S. It took me a while to realise that some units are firing back (couldn't work out why I was dying - thought some units obscured by the side trees must have been sneaking through). Difficult but sticky game. It looks like the port of the android game, but in spite of this in the game there is no advertising like on the phone :D
